

The Hardtner Camp & Conference Center is a unique and affordable place for group getaways, offering both a well-arranged setting for meetings and conferences and a pleasant sanctuary for personal reflection.

Located just north of Pollock, Louisiana, "Camp Hardtner" provides many a special opportunity to enjoy the natural splendor and beauty of 160 acres of rolling woodlands. Two distinct facilities provide accommodations for lodging, meetings, and meals for groups of 10 to 120. Availability for day or overnight use further enhances Hardtner's suitability for conference meetings or retreats.

The Conference Center

Set between two lakes, the Conference Center and Inn features 21 double bedrooms, each with a private bath. The central conference building contains a meeting room that will comfortably accommodate up to 75 people.

Hardtner Central

A favorite of all who make use of Hardtner, Hardtner Central is where the home-cooked meals are served in the dining room. Two hundred people can be comfortably seated.

The Chapel of the Holy Family

Situated next to Hardtner Central, the chapel of contemporary design is easily accessible from Hardtner Central via a covered walkway.

Camp Hardtner for Youth Retreats

For youth retreats, Camp Hardtner is one of the region's most modern camping facilities. Overlooking the largest lake on the property, the camp is noted for its 10 air-conditioned cabins, each with its own foyer. Ten to twelve people can sleep comfortably.
